THE ISSUE

As Explained Today by President McKinley.

It is Not Expansion, but Contraction—Who Favors Latter.

CEDAR FALLS, Ia., Oct. 16.—The presidential party was greeted by a large crowd at their first stop at Cedar Falls this morning. When the train arrived at 8:30 this morning, the crowd followed the train, and a question of expansion but a question of contraction. This territory in the Philippines came to us by the providence of God. We did not seek it, and now who is in favor of contraction?

PURDUE, La., Oct. 16.—The presidential train was greeted here by ten thousand people. Mr. McKinley was driven to Washington park, where he addressed a great crowd. The speech was devoted almost entirely to the praise of Iowa soldiers and their conduct in the war in the Philippines.

SPEEDING FOR MANILA.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The navy department has been informed that the new Orleans will be able to sail for Manila next Friday. The battles were found to be in a much better condition than was at first reported.
The navy is watching with interest field and Benton.

MAKING FOR OTHER POINTS

BARDWELL, Ky., Oct. 16.—The special train containing Hon. W. J.
Bryan and a number of Democrats, principal of whom was Wm. Goebel, candidate for governor, reached this point at 8:30 this morning on its two days' whirl through Kentucky. The coming of the train and its distinguished passenger had been well advertised and there were fully 3,000 people present to greet the speaker. The crowd was largely men, but still a goodly portion were women and children. The whole town had evidently turned out and from the vehicles in sight it was clear there were many present from adjoining sections.

The train had no sooner pulled into the depot than those on board began to hustle out and to make for a convenient stand nearby, from which Mr. Bryan had soon begun to speak. There was no loss of time and no parading of words. He intended to be brief and pointed. There was great interest to hear this speech, as it was understood it was to be a brief elucidation of his purpose in coming to the state. While his coming was thought to settle any doubt that he would not talk for Goebel still some hoped he would not thus antagonize the Brown faction of the party. The speaker declared himself, however, in unequivocal words, and a great section of Goebel and Blackburn. He said: "Whether there will be a Democratic president next year depends somewhat upon what you do here in Kentucky. Democrats voted against themselves cannot defeat Republicans.
I want Goebel and Blackburn elected."
The speech was received with vociferous applause. The greeting and departure of the party was also fattering.

MAYFIELD, Oct. 16.—The second speaking appointment of Mr. Bryan was at Mayfield, where he arrived a little late. All along the run from Bardwell to Mayfield people were at the track to cheer the train, there being a big crowd at Fulton. But at Mayfield was the crowd, a large one, something like 10,000 people having assembled to greet and hear the visitor. A thirty-minute talk was here delivered, but though it was longer than his Bardwell speech it was without a new point. Again Mr.
Bryan declared his wish as to the Louisville convention ticket, waving all questions except that it had the Democratic stamp and national success next year depended much on how Kentucky voted next month. The speaker was received with cheers, frequently applauded as he spoke and cheered as he left. Mr. Bryan spoke from a platform also at Mayfield.

BENTON, Oct. 16.—Three thousand people greeted Bryan and party here.
The speaking was in the opening of the depot and it was crowded.
Mr. Bryan was brief, talking only a few minutes, but he received many cheers.
He urged harmony, a united party and promised success a year hence. He returned to his train and left amid a roar of cheers.

When the party left here it was understood a few minutes stop would be made at Edgelyville, where several hundred people awaited them.
After leaving Edgelyville, Mr. Bryan will speak at Hopkinsville, Central City and Litchfield. He expects to be in Louisville at 10 tonight.

Noah's Ark always to the front with good things for their customers.
Come Tuesday.

CIRCUS AT MAYFIELD.

Fireproof and Sells Bros circus will be in Mayfield the 26th inst. It is one of the largest shows on the road.
It will play Hopkinsville the 25th and will skip Paducah, as several circuses have already.

Manager Torrell will have here on the night of the 26th South Before the War, with three bands and about 50 people. It is one of the largest shows on the road.

TOOK TWO PREMIUMS.

Mr. R. C. Hays, of Hays, Foster &
Ward, took Mayor Lang's saddle mare, Mittie Fowler, to Trenton, Tenn., a day or two ago, and she took three premiums, one as a saddle mare and the other as a harness mare. Mr.
Hays is almost as proud of her as the major himself is.

HAD A FIGHT.

Walter Summers and Ed Marable, colored, engaged in a fight today, and a warrant was issued against them.
Summers was arrested and locked up.
Working hard for your interests.
Never any damaged or unfit for use goods offered you. Our bargains are easy for you to verify, and the main in doubt can get his money back.
GRAND LEADER, 323 Broadway.

TOLES ACQUITTED.

There Was No Intent to Violate the Law.

John Toles, the colored man arrested a few days ago for false swearing, was tried this morning before Judge Sanders and acquitted.
The warrant alleged that he swore he had resided in his ward for two months, when he went to register last Tuesday. The evidence showed that he seemed in doubt, and said he would go and ask the man from whom he rented. He returned and said the man said he had been there six weeks.
The testimony showed that Toles did not intend to violate the law, as he went away to find out how long he had resided in the ward, and afterwards came back.

In addition he proved by several prominent river men that he had a good reputation, and was considered by all who knew him.
Judge Sanders decided that the defendant had no intention of violating the law and dismissed the warrant against him.

COLUMBIA, THE GEM

Eighth Attempt Proves America's Superiority

Our Cup Defender Easily Defeats
Her Contestant, Shamrock, Today.

NAVESINK, Highlands, N. K., Oct.
16.—After seven unsuccessful attempts to pull off the international yacht race have been made, the conditions this morning were not favorable for a good race. Although both boats crossed the starting line at 11 o'clock, the atmosphere was foggy. The wind was only twelve miles an hour. Not an excursion boat was present when the start was made. Unofficial time shows the Shamrock beat the Columbia across the line.

At 10:15 the yachts were well on towards the turning mark. The Columbia led by half a mile and was widening the gap constantly. The wind was holding steadily.
The Columbia had increased her lead to one mile at 1:04 and the wind was freshening.

The Columbia kept up her good sprinting and a quarter of a mile from the turning mark led the Shamrock by a mile and a half. It was still foggy, the wind blowing at from twelve to fourteen miles. The Columbia rounded the mark at 1:53. The Shamrock turned about ten minutes after the Columbia. The Columbia has a clear run before a wind which is now freshening twelve knots an hour. Unless something unforeseen happens she will win the race.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16, 3 p. m. The Columbia wins the race.

TAGALAS THREATEN TROUBLE

Are Gathering to Massacre the Visayans.

MANILA, P. I., Oct. 16.—Serious trouble is brewing at Iloilo between the Tagalos and the Visayans. The Tagalos want complete power for themselves. Their chief, Delgado, has collected twelve thousand men, with four thousand guns, at Santa Barbara, and his plans are to attack Iloilo and massacre Americans and permanently overpower the Visayans.

TO WASHINGTON.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Admiral Dewey left Boston last night for Washington, after spending a quiet Sunday. Ten thousand people were at the station to witness his departure.

ARE FIGHTING

The British-Afrikaner War is Working Itself on Slowly.

CRITICAL ARE CONDITIONS

Boers Are Invading English Territory Surly, But Slowly

Each Day.

ENGLISH CABINET MEETING

LONDON, Oct. 16, morning.—A press dispatch from Cape Town says the Boers have besieged Kimberly in force, entirely cutting off communication with that place. British official advice, so far as made public, report no fighting except around Mafeking.
Movements of large bodies of Boers are reported from many points. A vigorous censorship delays news from the front. New Castle, south of Laurie's Neck, is said to have been occupied Saturday by the Boers. Operations along the mountains Natal border have been hindered by snow.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 6.—The Schreider ministry having refused to call on the Cape volunteers, the Imperial authorities have issued a call in their own initiative. The friction between the Dutch and English in the colony is becoming critical.

DURBAN, Natal, Oct. 16.—The van of the Boers column invading Natal, consisting of two thousand men and sixteen guns, has reached Darnburgh, fifteen miles northeast of Durban.
Ten miles from Durban, Lady Smith is forty miles south. It is thought the Boers intend to isolate Durban from Ladysmith and an attack on Durban is expected today or tomorrow.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The cabinet meeting called for today is postponed until tomorrow.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 16.—The reported fighting going on to the south of Kimberly is now reported to be at 1:30, in the railroad.

ONLY SIX.

There Were Few Who Went to Mayfield to Hear Bryan.

The Illinois Central was to run a special coach to Mayfield on the early freight train this morning, but when the time arrived there were but three men at the depot. Three others joined the party at the shops, making a total of six. The company would not put on a special coach for them, and they went down on the regular freight. Evidently the people of Paducah do not care much for Mr. Bryan.

A Deferred Pleasure.

The Sunday school class has just finished singing "I Want to be an Angel and With the Angels Stand," when the teacher, observing that one of the boys had not contributed his voice to swell the sacred refrain, said: "And you want to be an angel, too, don't you, Johnny?" "Yeah," answered Johnny,
"but not right away. I'd rather be a baseball player a good deal first."

THE SEWERAGE.

Sub-Contractors Begin Work on Streets and Allies.

Contractors Wilcox and Halloran have begun the work of repairing the streets and sidewalks and allies, as the last steps towards the reception of the sewerage.

This morning workmen began on the alley leading from Second street, between Broadway and Court, back to the alley from Court between Second and Third. This is said to be the fattiest place in the city of Paducah this alley, and it is a disgrace to the city and a reproach to the boars of health.

There are 115 places in sidewalks to repair, as reported by Inspector Gagone, but few in the streets. All these will be attended to by the contractors, but it is understood that the date of the city against them for $3,200 will never be paid, unless the courts so decide. The contractors claim the work the city had done and wants them to pay $3,200 for could have been done for about $500.

"Vice" Stone Announces He Will Turn Over All Work—Is
He Mad?

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 16.—Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic National committee, Vice Chairman Stone and Committee Chairman Johnson, chairman of the National Executive committee, held a conference here this morning to review the political situation for the benefit of Mr. Jones, who has been in Europe. Mr. Stone stated positively he would turn over every detail of work to Mr. Jones on account of business and poor health.

FOREIGN NOTES.

There are fifty sects of Buddhism in Japan alone.
Cannibalism is still indulged in by aboriginal Australians.

It is estimated that foreign tourists leave more than $65,000,000 annually in Japan.

A resident of New Zealand has patented a liquid for branding cattle which can be applied with a brush.

The Island of Elba, famous as the place of Napoleon's first exile, is now the center of a thriving iron industry.
One Paris publisher is preparing for the publication of eighty-eight works on the Dreyfus case, and there are more in sight.

Germany is the greatest of book-producing countries, its publications numbering nearly 24,000 annually.
Great Britain produces about 7,000 and America about 4,000 books each year.

On the electric railways of Milan, Italy, the general fare is 2 cents, but for the benefit of the working people, the fare is 1 cent before 8 a. m. in the summer and 9 a. m. in the winter.

The vegetable ivory of Ecuador is the nut of a native palm. The exports amount to 11,500 tons per annum, of which two-thirds go to Germany and one sixth to the United States.

British Honduras is to have its first sea railroad, the only means of access to the interior of the colony at present being the numerous rivers and hurdle paths, for there are no roads for vehicles.

Germany ranks high in the list of exporters to Japan. Among the commodities which she sends to the Oriental islands are sugar, alcohol, printing paper, dynamite, wool hats, machinery, iron, zinc, celluloid and aniline dyes.

A Tolstoy colony has been founded at Apeldoorn, in Holland, by some of the Netherlands disciples of the Russian novelist. Apeldoorn was the favorite hunting beat of William III, before he became king of England.

PROGRESS AND REFORM.

Of the eight members constituting the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. of Tokyo, Japan, six have been to America.

The Methodists, Presbyterians, Episcopalians and Roman Catholics each have a church at Dawson City, and it is stated that all of these, besides the Salvation Army barracks, are filled every Sunday night.

The Salvation Army has decided to organize several colored corps in the principal southern cities, with a view of establishing colored branches of the Army throughout the southern states.
If the idea seems to be practicable, Bishop Hartzell recently had a long interview with Cecil Rhodes in Africa.
Mr. Rhodes promised concessions of lands and buildings and co-operation in their development, especially in establishing industrial missions among the natives.

Some German cities are considering the question of appointing physicians to have charge of the health of school children. In Charlottenburg, a suburb of Berlin, Ave have already been appointed, each having in charge from 1,800 to 2,000 children.

Arthur S. Gray, a colored man of Kansas, who was thrown on his own resources at the age of 13, has now reached the place of private secretary to the chief of the Bureau of Statistics, the only colored man in Washington to enjoy such rank and pay.
Of the $5,110,000 desired by the Wesleyan Church of England as a "twentieth century fund," $3,475,289 has already been subscribed. It has been decided to use $1,000,000 of the fund for building a Wesleyan Hall in London, capable of seating 3,000 persons.

Grand Opening!

Eley Dry Goods Company

will on Monday and Tuesday throw open to the public the doors of their large new dry goods emporium. W. H. Rieke, the owner of the building, has spared no expense in remodeling the house, and we can

MONDAY, OCT. 16, 1909.

The Louisville Post is teaching the people of the metropolis the art of making a first-class paper.

Goebel should have written his letters in fading ink. They have been too good to be destroyed as proof of his record.

There is no question relative to Gen. Taylor's election on the 7th prox. The only question is, what will be the size of his majority.

Tonight three weeks the present state contest will come to an end. The next next day the election falls. Three weeks more, and then the battle royal.

Mr. Bryan is sweeping across Kentucky today, surprising the natives and telling them great things. But he is making no impression and therefore is doing no good.

It is given out that as soon as congress meets the Republican National committee will assemble in Washington to name the time and place for the next national nominating convention.

What does Hodge, who was a Goebelin tool at the Louisville convention, think of Goebel's letter to Headley. Dubbed as insincere and as a liar, Hodge must feel good toward the Kenton king.

The ailing given Goebel's political record these few weeks should do him among every thoughtful citizen in the state. He is unworthy the high office he seeks and it would be suicidal for the state to elevate him thereto.

Mr. Bryan has often boasted, but he is now doing the grandest work of the kind he has perhaps ever before performed. His calculations for today is to travel 382 miles and make ten speeches of half an hour each—between 8 a. m. and 10 p. m. This is perhaps his best record.

May, 1896, was a very unfortunate month to Mr. Goebel. That month he seems to have devoted to visiting Washington and to writing letters to men he wanted to help him and whom he expected later to betray. But he left the trait of the serpent behind him in the way of letters which are now being used to bruise his head with.

Goebel is being persecuted, say his supporters. No rogue ever felt the halberd down without whining about the law, and the offending politician always cries persecution when his shortcomings are exposed. The people have a right to know the record of their would-be public servants and when facts are given it is not persecution—but exposure. The cry of persecution too oft is the cry of the rogue for sympathy.

The evidence is daily appearing that Goebel in years past was as great a political schemer as he now is. It is also as clear of proof that he then, as he is now doing, sacrificed friend and foe alike to win the point he desired. There is also but one purpose in life and that is to satisfy an ambition which has but one feature, and that is to fill his pockets at the cost of the people.

Senator Bronston Saturday night, in a speech at Lexington, in explanation of his bolt of Goebel, tore the mask off of Goebelinism and left a hideous skeleton for the people of the state to consider. The speech was heard by a large gathering and its effect was marked. The noted political leader, state senator and Democrat, had his tongue oiled for the occasion without deceit. The speech was too strong to be epitomized and abuse for Goebel to give it place in a few days. The talk was Mr. Bronston's vindication of himself and not made for other purpose.

In 1896, the Louisville Courier-Journal had only ridicule and abuse for Mr. Bryan, but now it is the greatest of all the leaders in the state. In 1896 the Courier-Journal said of the gentleman named: "Mr. William J. Bryan has come to Kentucky, and Kentucky has taken him in its measure. He is a boy orator. He is a dishonest dodger. He is a daring adventurer. He is a political fakir. He is not of the material of which the people of the United States have ever made a president, nor is he a sound money material of which any party has ever before made a candidate." Read what it now has to say of him and see the different effect as to whose ox is being gored. A seizer may save some stone.

Several of the papers and periodicals, chief among which is New York Town Topics, are wasting space and energy in the hopeless work of fooling Dewey for president. These papers are merely trying to arouse popular enthusiasm to a pitch that may enable him to make capital out of the nomination of Dewey, should such an improbable thing occur, and say "We did it." Dewey has been very positive in his utterances against such a foolish thing as his running for president. He knows his business, and it is not that of running for office. He is a good admiral but would make a poor president. No one knows this better than Dewey himself—and Town Topics. This is the first time Town Topics ever had such an attack of paresis. He has always raised against their worship.

Carlisle's letter establishing the fact that in 1896 Goebel was a gold bug and sought the aid of the executive to secure a sound money declaration at Chicago, in spite of Goebel's denial of the clear inference of the latter, has been substantiated by even stronger letters written to Hon. John W. Headley, of Louisville, which have been made public through the Louisville Post. In addition to the Headley letters Leslie T. Applegate, of Falmouth, an honored and well known lawyer, bears witness to the fact that Goebel asked his assistance in the same line. The king of Kenton is not only a fine schemer as a politician in plainer words a feather bed of dark ways—but he is a fabricator of the whole cloth, whose own letters convinced him of not only treachery but unmitigated lying. The black and white epistles of Carlisle and Headley, his denials of their import, and his present canvass should show him in the eyes of the honest public and they will.

THE WAY.
 Says the Madisonville Hustler: "It seems to us that the only question that should address itself to every Democrat in the emergency that now confronts the party is whether he would rather see Goebel or Taylor governor."

That is the way you see it, and the way all other Goebelinists see it. But the real question, and it should so impress Democrats of the Goebel stripe as it does other citizens, is whether the people would rather see the state in the hands of a gang whose platform is a rule or ruin policy and whose chief advocate says publicly on the stump that what can't be obtained fairly may be stolen—the election being meant but the idea not being an exclusive one—or the state in control of a party whose public declarations are for peace and prosperity, whose party has declared for the public and private welfare of all the people, who is fighting for honesty in elections and all other lines of action, and who stands pledged to guarantee these blessings to them without favor.

There is no other way to look at the matter and in November the people, speaking for themselves, will declare this without doubt through their votes.

SENATOR GOEBEL'S REPLY.

Louisville Commercial: "The explanation which Mr. Goebel makes relative to his political activities in 1896, involved in his reply to the recent letters from Hon. John G. Carlisle, can hardly help him with either or any elements of his party. It is an explanation which does not explain. It is a purported statement of facts which the facts themselves do not sustain. It is clear a demonstration as anything could be that Mr. Goebel's code of political morals is too loose to fit a proper conception of the rights and obligations of citizenship."

Mr. Goebel's reply to ex-Secretary Carlisle is in perfect alignment with the impulses which prompted him to frame the existing election law, with his arguments by which he secured its enactment, and with the methods by which he now seeks to reap the advantage of the frauds which may be safely committed under it—except for the fury of an outraged people. He does not go as far as to say that in politics "everything is fair," but his is the logic of his explanation. "The new position in which Mr. Goebel has placed himself by his harrowing speech must inevitably shock many of the Democrats who have remained loyal to him up to this point in the gubernatorial canvass and drive him out of the ranks of his adherents. They can not fail to see how easily he can reason for the betrayal of political associates and how promptly he acts upon these insufficient causes for a change of base affecting public questions. And having thus been made aware of his inconsistency by his own confession will they go on now and by electing him governor under the terms of his own law, surrender absolutely in his hands the political power of the commonwealth for a generation?"

"We do not believe that the reputation, ambitious Democrats of Kentucky will permit such a result of the pending campaign. They are much more likely to take Mr. Goebel at his own word and to relegate him to political oblivion."

PROTECT THE BALLOT.
 Louisville Dispatch, Democrat: "When a man is assaulted by a highwayman he may resist by force, and if such resistance results in the injury or death of his assailant the law holds him blameless. Is a man's ballot less sacred than his purse? Is the right to protect person and property to be granted, and the right to protect the ballot to be denied? If public sentiment supports the man who kills the highwayman or the burglar, will it not also support such resort to force as may be necessary to protect the right of suffrage?"

"It requires a low order of physical courage or daring to make a successful highwayman or burglar. But the ballot thief is the veriest craven. He commits his crime by stealth, and thinks it a smart trick. He would not like to look into the muzzle of a shotgun or a rifle. The sight of a rope and a noose would give him a chill."

"In this country the right of suffrage is the very basis of all other rights. Upon it rests the right to life and property and the pursuit of happiness. If a man may take away the right of suffrage with impunity they may also assault life and property. Popular government is swept away and our bill of rights becomes meaningless. The very basis of our civilization is destroyed."

"If we cannot have free and honest elections in this country; if we cannot have fairness and decency in our political affairs, the sooner we cease to maintain a sham republic and substitute some other system the better for the country. If the people are not to be permitted to vote, or if their votes are not to be counted, we can not hope to restore popular government in the United States, we cannot hope to rescue the power of the public authority from the hands of a selfish class. It matters but little whether elections are stolen by one party or another, whether Democrats or Republicans, office seeking politicians or power seeking corporations are the beneficiaries, the results must eventually be the same. The party whose power rests upon stolen elections and elections rather than the favor of the people is no less dangerous to the fundamental principles of our government than the corruption that seeks to dominate the government for private gain, and that resorts to the corruption of the ballot to accomplish its purpose."

"No man can be a Democrat and accept a party nomination save by free expression of the choice of a majority of his party. The greatest enemy to Democratic principles now abroad in this country is the ballot thief. There can be no democracy without the rule of the majority, and this is impossible when daring and unscrupulous politicians steal nominations and election."

"One of the most distressing manifestations of the political infamy now known in Kentucky as Goebelinism, is the open declaration of many men generally considered honest in other affairs that the present contest is to be decided by force and fraud in spite of a majority. The support of the Music Hall infamy by many reputable Democrats, for the sake of party regularity, has undoubtedly lowered the standard of political morals in Kentucky already and the determination to count in the Goebel ticket whether it has the votes or not is spreading among men, who up to this time, have at least maintained a semblance of decency and honesty in politics. Goebel has spread an organization over the state dominated by his ideas, and ready to resort to his methods. Some men have been dragged into this who deserve to be in better company, who do not believe in force and fraud, and who, in the past, have been the victims of his treachery and who may not fully realize what they are doing."

"There is a way to check this fever of fraud and to bring men to their senses who, in the excitement of a political campaign, are ready to pull down the very foundation of the government to have their own way. Let all such understand that the people of Kentucky have the manhood and courage to assert their rights. Let them understand that ballot thieves will be punished, legally if possible, by force if necessary. Let them understand that every man who attempts to intimidate a voter or to use a false return will so at his peril. Let them understand that the people will defend their right of suffrage as they would defend their right of property and life when assailed by burglar, highwayman or murderer. Let them understand that the black flag is raised against all ballot thieves and that no quarter will be shown. The rogues who would steal the election are cowards, and when they understand that the people are in earnest, they will not put their lives in peril even to aid the master genius of dishonesty in politics."

Mrs. Throat, of South Sixth street, has a case of meningitis, but is better today.

Circuit court began this morning at Metropolis, and will last several weeks. The principal case is that against Phil Lynn in which a drummer of Nashville is the principal witness.

A case against Charles White for using insulting language, was this morning left open until tomorrow morning in the police court.

Rev. W. R. Taylor conducted the Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday afternoon, and the services were very interesting.

A lamp exploded at the home of Mr. Mat Piles, on North Eighth street, Saturday night and ignited a bed. The fire department was called out but no services were needed. The damage was slight.

"Sanco," commonly called "Sank," Dr. Eddie South's fine bird dog, died suddenly Saturday, cause unknown. He was about nine years old and there was not a better known dog in town.

Arnold, the 12-year-old son of Mr. Lunn Paulson, of South Fourth street, fell from a fence and broke his left arm in two places Saturday afternoon. Dr. Robertson dressed the injury.

Jack Bolan, the pugilist, is trying to arrange a match with George Riley, of Cincinnati for this month at the athletic club.

The Illinois Central pay car will be here Thursday, the 19th.

R. C. Turpin and Sarah Harris were licensed to marry Saturday night.

The funeral of the late John Nally took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The weather yesterday was as balmy as a day in June. The same conditions have prevailed today. Winter may be approaching, but apparently it is over a side track line.

Large congregations attended the churches yesterday open for divine services.

Mr. Brian Mann, the venerable father of Mr. Jack Mann, proprietor of the Palmer house cigar stand, died a day or two ago at Brownsville, Tenn., where he had lived a quiet life for some time past. He was quite an old man, and died from consumption.

Superintendent A. S. Thompson, of the street car company, this afternoon received a quantity of black bass, which he will place in the lake at La Belle park. It is hoped to have the place stocked with fish by next summer.

James Ferrigan, who was fined $50 and sent to jail several weeks ago for carrying a pistol and pointing it at a hackman, was today released and allowed to go home. He had about nineteen days longer to serve, but as he had been a good and industrious prisoner, he was allowed to go by Judge Sanders.

DISAPPOINTED

A "Detective" Got $100 and Thirty Days

Came Here to Locate Pete Griffin—Got in Jail Himself Instead.

Thomas Freeman, of Lafayette, Christian county, is not the first unsophisticated youth who got in trouble dallying with cheap detective agencies. He is the last, however. Freeman came to the city a day or two ago and began to pose as a detective. He is a rather nice looking young man, and the suspicions of the police were at once aroused when he began making his claims, for a real detective never lets his business be known, while this young man was very anxious for every one to know of it.

Saturday night he went to Pearl Wilson's resort on Court street, and said he wanted to make a fire. He pulled one or two big pistols from the grate, and the mystified inmates did not know what to make of it, so they called the police.

Mr. Detective was arrested, and by this time had the two pistols back in his pockets. He has papers showing him to be appointed a "detective for life" by one of those numerous swindlers that are such a menace to the callow youth of the rural regions.

Judge Sanders delivered a lecture on pistol totin' and fined Freeman $100 and sent him to jail for thirty days. When he gets out he will doubtless be sadder and wiser and quite willing to give up being a detective.

SUES FOR DIVORCE.

The Wife Alleged to Have Deserted the Husband.

J. A. Stout this morning filed a suit for divorce in the circuit court against Maggie Stout. He alleges that they were married in 1877 in Mount City, Ill., and lived together until 1893, when she deserted him and went to St. Louis to reside, being still there. He asks for absolute divorce.

A demurrer to the suit of Richard Allen against the city for $10,000 damages for the location of the post house, was overruled. It was claimed in the suit that there was no cause of action.

WORK ON THE DEPOT.

The Civil Engineers Began Work This Morning.

This morning the new depot, to be built by the I. C. near the "Y," was staked off, Civil Engineer Washington and assistants beginning work this morning. The building will be erected as rapidly as possible, and it is thought that by next month trains will be stopping there.

SMOKE, BUT NO FIRE.

The old adage that where there's a smoke there's a fire, was borne out by the fact that the fire department had yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock. It was called to Ellis, Rudy & Phillips, on Broadway. There was considerable smoke in the house, but no sign of a fire. Chief Wood is of the opinion that the smoke came in from an adjacent place. No other cause could be assigned for the strange occurrence.

ALL ARE ILL.

The whole family of the late Henry Zeiss, who died in Arkansas a few weeks ago, and was brought here for burial, are ill from malaria. There are seven in the family, and they reside at Ninth and Tennessee streets. They have been in bed, but it is expected the husband and father left $4,000 insurance, on which money will be advanced.

PROMINENT LODGE MEN.

Messrs. Hess and Woody, two prominent members of the grand lodge Knights of Honor are to be in Paducah on the 18th. They come to visit the lodges here and to talk over matters of interest. They will be the guests that evening of Washington lodge and will no doubt be welcomed by a large gathering.

COUNCIL MEETS TONIGHT.

The city council meets tonight in regular session, but nothing but routine business will come up, as far as can be learned. Mayor Lang will preside, as usual, and there will be few, if any ordinances. The promises are for a short session.

Schellingerhout.

The 16-year-old Holland boy with this long name loved music, but his parents were too poor to let him learn it. Not long ago he wrote to Queen Wilhelmina, who is a very young woman, with a great love of young people who wish to make something of themselves, and told her how much he wished to make music his life's work. The young queen at once gave orders that he should have the best music teacher in Holland for the next six months, and then, if he shows that he has any genius, she promises that he shall have the best musical training to be found in Europe. In many ways the little queen has shown that she will be one of the best monarchs the world has ever known, not even excepting Queen Victoria of England.

Had Been Studying Up.
"Father," said one of that type of young men that is likened to the lily, "you have frequently advised me to emulate the busy bee." "Yes, and with very unsatisfactory results." "Well, I've concluded to follow your advice. I have just read here, from one of the most distinguished scientists of the age, that the 'busy bee' never works to exceed three hours a day."—Detroit Free Press.

BRYAN GOES THROUGH

He is Undertaking a Remarkable Trip for One Day.

Did Not Stop in Paducah—Will Make Seven Speeches in Kentucky.

Hon. William Jennings Bryan passed through Paducah twice today, once about 11:30 a.m. and again at 1:30. He did not stop any longer than necessary to be switched from the I. C. to the N. C. & St. L. and back again.

Mr. Bryan has undertaken one of the most remarkable trips ever known for one day. He expects to travel 382 miles in Kentucky from 7 o'clock this morning until 10 o'clock tonight, and will make seven speeches, of thirty minutes each.

He came in from Cairo this morning early. His first speech was made at Bardwell, his next at Mayfield, and the next at Benton. He passed through Paducah as stated and went over the N. C. & St. L. to Benton. He will stop over at Edinville, however, and make a brief speech, lasting only about five minutes.

He speaks next at Hopkinsville, then at Centerville and at Leitchfield, and probably at Cosmopolis.

Senator Gobel and Mr. James Blackburn, brother of the ex-senator passed through the city yesterday afternoon for Cairo, to meet Mr. Bryan. Mr. Urey Woodson is in charge of the special train, which had 15 people.

In addition to the other correspondents, Joseph Altshuler, of the New York World and James Creelman, of the Journal, were with the party.

The time to be made by Mr. Bryan, with the stops, will necessitate some very fast running. If he accomplishes it the railroad men think it will be almost remarkable.

While the work of switching Mr. Bryan's train from the I. C. to the N. C. & St. L. railroad was being done Mrs. W. F. Bradshaw, Mrs. Cook Hubbard, Mrs. I. D. Wilcox, Mrs. C. K. Wheeler and Mrs. R. G. Caldwell became passengers by invitation. All went to Benton with the party and returned home this afternoon.

The train arrived here at 11:25 and was going in ten minutes. Conductor H. G. Thompson was in charge. There were two coaches and a baggage car. One of the coaches was partly filled with Mr. Bryan's party and some friends who had gotten on at different points and the other was occupied by newspaper correspondents. Committee men Urey Woodson and H. G. Tandy seemed to be doing the gallantry of the occasion. Though some of the newspapers seemed to have several representatives on board it was observable that no opposition papers had correspondents among them.

There were half a dozen people at the switching points to see the Bryan party, along with many road employees—but they were only gratified in seeing Mr. Bryan as he sat beside a window. There was no recognition from the train and not a cheer from the crowd. The arrangements had been made to give Paducah a cold shake and this was carried out to the managers' satisfaction no doubt.

This afternoon the special bearing the distinguished party reached the Union depot about 1:50. The visit was unexpected, the stop being made for ice. There were very few people there, and these were only passengers, who ventured within a few feet of the coach to catch a glimpse of those inside and on the platform. There was no demonstration of any kind, and Mr. Bryan did not show himself. After supplying the train with ice, the party left, meeting the train from Louisville at the shops. Conductor Murphy took it out of here.

RAM'S HORNS.

Hospitality is Christ in the home. Life lies deeper than its leaves.

Your opportunity is balanced by your obligation.

Enthusiasm is the fountain of perpetual youth.

Many prayers fall back because they are misdirected.

Because the Christian has the Cross he does not try to quarantine the saloon, but help to kill it.

Engrossed in feasting on his gifts, we oft forget the Giver.

Man is not a candle that burns out, but a lamp that God refills.

God never asks you to blow out your candle till he gives you sunlight.

If truth is a broom, one end is to hold, and the other to sweep with.

The men who make the world are the men who are not on the make.

Our company contributes more to our content than the car we are in.

God shines after the storm, and the raindrops of tears become diamonds.

If you are certain that you are uncertain, how great is your uncertainty?

There is perpetual summer in the heart where the sun of righteousness shines.

Adversity is the grindstone on which we lose enough to put an edge of usefulness on our lives.

The doubt that is an interrogation may be a blessing, but if it is a determination, it is a curse.

Overzeal for one commandment is often the attempt of a guilty conscience to overshadow some other.

It is the Christ who is touched with a feeling of our infirmities, who touches and fills us with the might of his strength.—Ram's Horn.

Sweet Filling.
Tommy—"I've got de toothache, awful." Visitor—"You should have the tooth filled, Tommy." Tommy—"I did have it filled. That's what makes it ache so." Visitor—"I never heard of such a thing. Did you have it filled with gold?" Tommy—"No! Had it filled with gum drops."

GIRL PREACHER.

Miss Melvina K. Sowles, 16 years old, is a regularly licensed preacher of the Baptist church. Her home is at Prospect, Wis. When very young she evinced a strong religious spirit, and taught a class in Sunday school. As she became older her devotion to the cause strengthened. This year she decided to broaden her field of usefulness, and after much difficulty, on account of her age and sex, succeeded in obtaining a license to preach.
